

Transnational Project Event in Malta

The event took place between the 11th and 14th of April 2019 with main activities taking place in St Julians region, but also in Valletta and Madina.

The first day of the event was dedicated on Introductions and Discussions on the Expectation of the delegations, and an Official Opening. The day was ended with an International Cuisine night with the participation of all Delegations and the Migrant Women Association food truck at the Is-Swieqi Community Hall.

The third and last day, included a visit at two important voices for the integration of refugees. In particular, the Archdiocese of Malta, and Peace Lab. The event completed with an afternoon presentation from Prisms Malta.

The second day took place in Valletta in the “Malta Council for the Voluntary Sector” premises and the “Is-Swieqi Local Council Community Hall”. There the delegations had the opportunity to discuss with three organisations that are active in refugee and migrants’ integration in Malta.
